

The Presence of Your Essence
(Initiation Graced Through the Orbs of Light)
Facilitated by The Chancellor, Toni Elizabeth Sar'h

On October 2, 2009, friends in Croatia emailed me a picture they had taken of the Light Orbs emerging from a vortex. As they emerged, they were first crescent shaped and then became the Orbs of Light seen in photographs and by the naked eye. This was the first time I had seen this birthing since my original experience with the Light Orbs in the late 1990's. At that time, I also witnessed them emerging from a spatial void. Now, here they were again, yet much different in their multiplicity and exuberance. With the permission of my friends, I made a movie, "Echoes of the One Heart."

The day after I received the picture of the Light Orbs' vortex, I was scheduled to record a Light Orb Reading for a woman who had contacted me a few weeks earlier. During the reading, the Light Orbs told me that they would no longer be giving reading transmissions as they had been since 2004. They told me there would be one more transmission after which they would give me additional information; that they were going to become much more intimately connected with the hu-man species.

On November 11, 2009, I recorded the last of the Light Orb Readings. During the transmission, the Orbs of Light expressed that they experienced the woman who was receiving the reading as the "blue-green energy stream; when they looked at her they saw her blue-green energy". About half-way into the reading, the Light Orbs etherically swept through my body carrying me away through the vortex into a void. Their energy and the dynamism of it were so pervasive that I lost all awareness of the earth, being only conscious of my having merged with them within their frequency of light. At the same time, they were conveying this activation to the woman for whom I was transmitting the Light Orbs' information.

Immediately after the reading, they told me to sit down and type the words they would give me. It is an explanation of the Initiation into the Presence of Your Essence as an Emanation of the Eminence. The Orbs told me to call it "The Presence"; that they would convey the frequencies to those who wished them that would allow the dual world amnesia to be dissolved leaving only The Presence of the Essence within the consciousness. They also told me that they wanted me to combine this initiation (lasting one hour) with a recorded discussion from them regarding the attributes they were aware of within the initiate that had been maintaining the oblivion. Their direct words follow this writing.

After completing their message, I sent an email to my friends in Croatia asking them if they would take pictures again to see what the Light Orbs would like to convey pictorially for this initiation. The response from them was immediate (within minutes). The picture of the blue-green light had already been taken.

"All is in place," they said.

On November 19, 2009, I sat down in my chair to facilitate an Angel Fire Transmission with a young lady in Nashville, TN. Once the connection had been secured, I found myself immersed within the blue-green energy of the Beings of Light. Questioning this occurrence, I was told, "This is the essence of the Seraphim, awakening remembrance in the human. We have told you before and we will emphasize again ~ ALL IS ONE ~ THERE IS NO SEPARATION.

As I experienced drawing back from the earth, viewing it from space, hovering far above it, I witnessed the Light Beings merging frequencies with what is known as the angelic realm (a dimensional frequency slightly faster than the human frequency) and then into the etheric envelope of earth itself. Again, I heard, "WE ARE ONE".

After the transmission was complete, I checked my notes regarding this lovely woman who had co-facilitated this experience by requesting the Angel Fire. What I found (and subsequently remembered) was her request in January 2009 for a Soul Reading given by the Beings of Light!

The Presence of Your Essence as an Emanation of the Eminence (as spoken by the Orbs of Light)

"We are here with you this day and we are wanting to tell you that the Presence of your Essence is being relayed to you – conveyed, if you would, in such a way that you will not ever forget its presence again. We might say that we are relieving you of the amnesia of this dual world.

Simply saying these words to you may seem like enough and yet the vibration of that Presence within you, that immediate sensory input within the very cells of your body, creates a sense of enlightenment that you yearn for in ways that you cannot even begin to express.

Do not be fooled by the simplicity of that which we are conveying to you. When the Presence of Your Essence is the only aspect of that which you are aware, you know It beyond any cognitive knowing. The Presence is that which is the ISness of you and it is in that that we take part because we are that Presence of Your essence before you.

"What," you say, "you are our Presence?"

And we answer, "Yes, we are and because we know it and we know that you wish to know it as well, whether you have said it or not, we are now bringing to you a way to release yourself from the bonds of the dual world in your perception."

When you have been re-aligned with the conscious Presence of Yourself then you will know that there is no other. There can be only One and that One is you. This you will know.

To do so, we request permission of you to flow before your moving screen within your mind all that we see within you containing and contributing to the filtering process you are using to create this dual world. And yes, we said "you are creating" because you are. The Presence of Your Essence lives within this dual world of your creation and since you are the only one who can change it from duality to singularity, we are offering you an opportunity, a chance if you would, to do so now. The Presence of Your Essence is all that is required to leap into this aspect of your manifestation. It is a quantum leap. It does not move from place to place yet changes within itself. You are that quantum leap. You change from living in a dual world into being in only a single reality without end.

The time in your world is now. The invitation is being given. Whether you decide to except the invitation or wish to remain in the dual world in your reality is not a matter of our judgment. You are the creator of this world. You will create a single reality when you are ready to do so."
